GETTING TO LILLE

By plane

Via Paris Charles de Gaulle Airport and take direct from the airport high speed train (TGV) to Lille (~50 mn from the Airport CDG to Lille by TGV).

Or directly to Lille airport (less than 10 km outside town in the city of Lesquin), a shuttle links it to Lille Europe train station.

By Rail

There are 2 railway stations where you take a high speed train (Train Grande Vitesse, TGV) to Paris, Brussels or even London. Departures or arrivals can be either at Lille-Flandres or at Lille-Europe. Please check carefully your train ticket. Both railway stations are located downtown Lille.

Paris – Lille : 50 minutes

Bruxelles – Lille : 38 minutes

GETTING TO AEROCO/AEROSAT conference place

(Metro stop : Cité Scientifique / Pr. Gabillard)

The best option to access the Conference venue is by metro (Line 1 Yellow – Metro stop Cité Scientifique / Pr. Gabillard). This is about 10 minutes by metro from Lille city centre. The metro ticket can be purchased in any metro station via ticket machines. The machine suggests a variety of options, but a card that can be recharged by 10 tickets pack can be optimal for 5 days stay. Note that once the card is validated, it is valid for any travel during one hour and can be used for metro/bus combination, although the card validation is needed at every entrance. Information : www.ilevia.fr

From the LILLE-EUROPE railway station

Take the Metro for Saint Philibert (ligne nr 2)

Getting off at the stop Gare Lille-Flandres

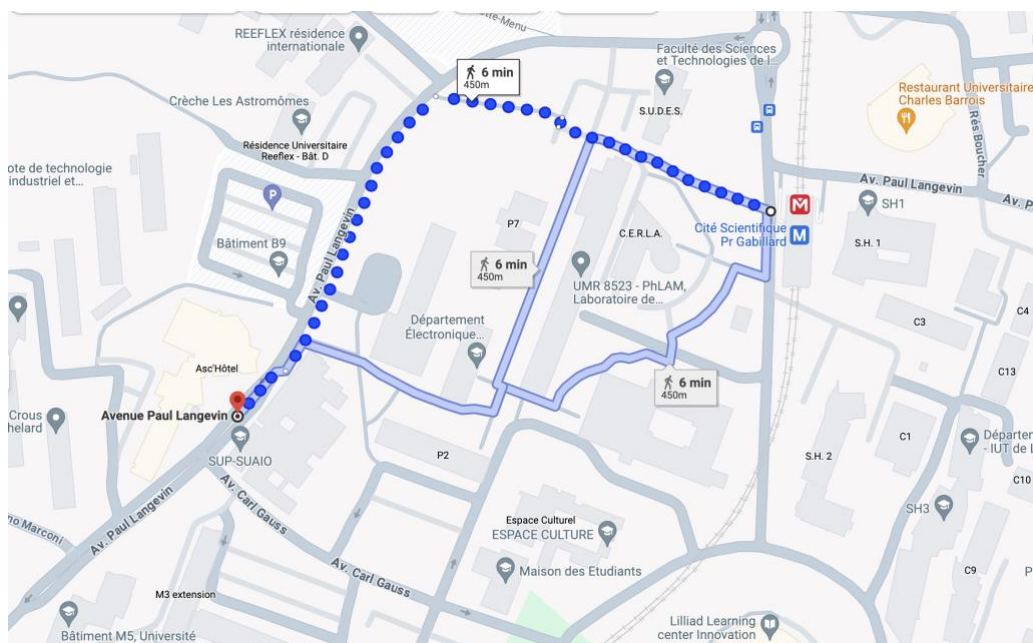

Take the ligne nr 1 for 4 Cantons

Getting off at the stop Cité Scientifique / Pr. Gabillard

From the LILLE-FLANDRES railway station

Take the Metro for 4 Cantons (ligne nr 1)

Getting off at the stop Cité Scientifique / Pr. Gabillard
